Your Honor:

I am writing this letter on behalf of Mr. Leonard Degnan. I have been a close family friend of the Degnan Family for the past ten years and have come to know Mr. Degnan as a kind, loving and beyond outstanding father and husband. Mr. Degnan treats everyone he meets with the utmost respect and he is one of the most honest and decent human beings I have had the pleasure of knowing. I have often called upon him for both personal and career advice and his continual guidance has truly helped me pave my own path in life. Mr. Degnan is a man of great character who exercises sound moral judgment.

Although I grew up without a father, Mr. Degnan has always made it a point to treat me as if I were one of his own children, and I am forever grateful for all of his love and support. Mr. Degnan is a man that would do anything he could to help others, like myself, and he goes out of his way to take care of those around him. He has also been an upstanding member of society, and has strived to help his community in any way he could.

Mr. Degnan is a devoted and dedicated husband and father and is a great role model for others. He is someone that I hold the highest respect for.

Regards,

Ilana Ciccone
